Answer:

In the past all nations have committed atrocities and crimes. Muslims became victims but also they were the major victimizers. Read the history of the conquests of Islam. In my own country Iran the Muslims murdered millions and enslaved millions.

Please wake up and do not live in the past. Look around yourself TODAY. Today the Muslims are the main perpetrators of crimes everywhere. All news of terrorism is from Islamic fronts. All the other nations have learned to leave aside their religious bigotry, have embraced humanism and secularism except Muslims who decline to part form the 7th century mindset.

You remember and mention the war in Kosovo and Bosnia but conveniently or blindly do not see that the “Christian” world joined force to subdue Yugoslavia, another Christian country, to liberate the Muslims. Would Muslims have given any support to a Christian, Jewish, or Hindu country if a Muslim country oppressed it? Of course not! The lives of non-Muslims for Muslims are worth nothing. Their right is non-existent. They must be subdued and killed. This is what the Quran teaches. This is what the Prophet did and said.

You read the history but only parts of it that supports your biased and hateful way of thinking. Why don’t you read the whole history to see what Muslims did to non-Muslims in Medina, Kheybar Yeman, Iran, Syria, India, Spain, Sudan and are still doing in Kashmir, India, Bangladesh, (up until a month ago) Afghanistan, Philippines, Indonesia, Iran, East Timor, Pakistan, Sudan, Nigeria, and in every other country where Muslims have penetrated including in USA?

TODAY no other group is oppressing people of other religions except Muslims. TODAY Muslims are the only religious group that is killing people for religious purposes. TODAY Muslims are the only group that insists to conquer the world and impose a religious rule on the entire humanity. TODAY Muslims are the only people who are willing to destroy the world with atomic bombs to prove that their sadistic Allah is powerful.

All other religions, despite their bloody past are now only concerned with personal piety and spiritual development of their followers. Some of them also get involved in works of charity like Salvation Army, Habitat for Humanity, etc. But Muslims are the only group that still thinks of Jihad, and expansion of their religion through violent means. Muslims are the only group that believes their god has given them the mission to kill those who reject him. Muslims are the only group that still endeavors to impose the antiquated misogynistic laws of their “holy” book. And Muslims are the only group that has not apologized for the crimes of their past and keeps committing those crimes even today.
